Alex Cruz Rodriguez joined Faber in 2021, and is part of the team helping drug development clients with contracting that's a regular part of their R&D activities.

While in law school, Alex interned at an emerging growth company and assisted with its initial public offering, experience that has provided him with a deeper understanding of the business challenges faced by startups and emerging growth organizations. In addition, Alex was a Managing Editor for the American Journal of Law & Medicine, one of the country's leading health law journals.
