

Katisha M. J. Brown she/her

Senior Contracts Specialist

E katisha.brown@faberlawgroup.com

P (212) 230 5758

Katisha brings extensive in-house experience to her contracting work with Faber's biopharma industry clients.

Katisha also supports contracting in connection with global clinical studies. She assists clients with contract management and prepares and negotiates agreements for US based and multi-national clinical trials, including CRO and site clinical trial agreements.

Katisha is the chair of Faber's Black Civil Rights Education sub-committee as part of Faber's commitment to equality, diversity and inclusion.

EDUCATION

Massachusetts School of Law at Andover, J.D.

Molloy College, M.S., Criminal Justice, Magna Cum Laude

State University of New York, B.A. Sociology

Experience

Senior Contract Manager

Kintai Therapeutics, Inc.

- Prepared, reviewed, and negotiated various agreements in support of R&D operations
- Led and implemented company-wide legal immersion contracts training
- Proactively trained and educated new hires on contract review and submission processes, establishing the rights of the parties, and the importance of protecting proprietary/confidential information and trade secrets

Associate Contract Manager

Momenta Pharmaceuticals, Inc.

- Prepared, reviewed, and negotiated various agreements in support of R&D operations.
- Conducted Procurement and Contracts new hire trainings for employees, contractors and consultants.