

M. Masaya Seltzer he/him

Counsel

E masaya.seltzer@faberlawgroup.com

P (212) 230 5766

An experienced pharmaceutical and hospital lawyer, Masaya works with life science clients on research, drug development and clinical matters.

He handles and provides strategic advice on matters related to the conduct of global clinical trials, clinical trial agreements, investigator-initiated research agreements, clinical and non-clinical vendor services agreements, and supply chain matters related to development & manufacturing agreements and GMP services agreements. Masaya has worked with clinical investigators specializing in neurology, cancer, urology and transplant surgery.

BAR ADMISSIONS

New York

EDUCATION

Brooklyn Law School, J.D.

UC San Diego, B.A. Mathematics &

B.A Visual Arts

Experience

Senior Contracts Specialist

NYU School of Medicine

- Worked on clinical trial agreements, investigator-initiated research agreements, collaboration agreements, site sub-agreements and sponsored research agreements
- Supported clinical operations and quality assurance in the conduct of industry-supported clinical research for the departments of neurology, psychiatry, cancer, urology, hepatology, nephrology, transplant surgery and orthopedic surgery

Community Involvement

Masaya previously worked as an immigration attorney specializing in asylum applications. Prior to becoming a lawyer, Masaya spent three years as a Peace Corps volunteer in West Africa.